

Pikes Peak Camera Club Salon Rules

1. Any paid up member who has entered at least one monthly PPCC competition during the competition year is eligible to enter the Salon. New members who joined during the year are also eligible. Eligibility will be determined from monthly competition records.

2. There are (2) Open Divisions,(3) Prints, Digital Projected Images. Open Divisions are open to any subjects. There are several Special Award Divisions.

Special Awards

Special Awards are given for prints and projected digital images depicting the subjects selected by the donors of the Awards. The donor may stipulate conditions and restrictions for entries to be eligible. The number and type of Special Award competitions are determined and set annually by the Salon Committee.

3. All entries must be entirely the work of the person entering, except the processing of color negatives, or black and white negatives, which may be done commercially. If the photographer does not have a home printer, or darkroom, prints done commercially are accepted.

4. Any print or digital photo entered in any previous PPCC Salon is ineligible.

5. Each person may enter up to four (4) prints, and or, projected digital images in each Open Division.

6. Each person may enter, one or all, Special Award Division. Entries are limited to four (4) prints, or (4) projected digital images depending on which division the special award is in.

7. Entry fee shall be charged for each Open Division entered payable with entry. An entry fee will be imposed for each Special Award Division entered. Fees will be determined and may be set annually by the Salon Committee.

8. Prints, including mount, or mat, size shall not exceed 26 x 34 inches. Mounts or mats may be horizontal, or vertical, of any color, but prints may not be framed. Prints are to be legibly marked on the back with the title and photographers name, division, and entry number within that division.

Example: Big Buck, John Doe, Open_1, Or, Buck Shadows, John Doe, Presidents Award_4. Please have prints in order of entry number within the division at work night.

9. Projected Digital Images are to be the same size and in the same format as used in regular monthly competitions. Please see the year book if you have any questions.
