THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

KAREN MORRIS

Kudos and sincere gratitude are bestowed on Jerry Moldenhauer for the tremendous amount of work he is doing the benefit of our club and its members.

The high school competition, organized and facilitated by Jerry, was a huge success. Nearly 50 students, from 12 local high schools, submitted about 200 images for the competition.

When I arrived at the May meeting, a little late, the winners of the high school competition, and their families, were streaming out of the meeting room...all smiles! In the parking lot, parents were taking pictures of their honored students, groups were talking about the competition, and the enthusiasm was palpable. What a joy to witness the aftermath of their experience with Pikes Peak Camera Club.

Jerry's next challenge, our biggest fundraiser of the year, is the annual Pikes Peak Challenge. The Brain Injury Alliance of Colorado is celebrating the 33rd year of this unique event, and hopes to raise a record amount of money to help improve the lives of those living with the effects of brain injury. The Alliance raises money from registration fees and donations, and our club raises money when participants buy pictures we've taken of them, as they meet the challenge of the trail. This is definitely a win-win situation.

The ensure the success of this event, we need volunteers from our club to take pictures of the participants, as they hike up Barr Trail to Barr Camp, or to the summit of Pikes Peak. A third option for participants is a 2 mile walk around Manitou Springs. As a volunteer photographer, you can station yourself in Manitou, along the Barr Trail, at Barr Camp, or at the summit. Transportation down from the summit will be provided. Please contact Jerry <photohunterjlm@hotmail.com>, or me, kbmorris1@msn.com with questions, and to let us know where you'd like to volunteer. Food, water, transportation, and a T-shirt are provided to volunteers. Please contact us by August.

Additionally, in his "spare time" Jerry is also coordinating the upcoming Adelaide Camera Club/Pikes Peak Camera Club Competition. This event will take place this July/August. Start selecting your best images to submit to Jerry. In the past, each member has submitted 2 images. This is an open subject competition, and Jerry will submit 35 images for judging.

Sincere thanks, Jerry, for all you do to insure the continued success of our club.

The Story Behind the Photo.....

This is a section in the newsletter where each month I ask certain club members to share their story on how they took their award winning photo.

“White Beard”

The “White Beard” photo was taken several years ago at a music event in Bancroft Park in Old Colorado City. I was seeking “different” pictures. The photo sat in my archives until the appropriate Camera Club subject surfaced. My old, yet reliable, point and shoot digital captured the image. The photo was cropped, not further processed. I seek to capture “reality.”

“Offering” by Karen Morris

A weeklong celebration, in Rothenburg ob der Tauber, Germany, offered numerous photographic opportunities.

This well preserved medieval walled village is on the Romantic Highway, north of Munich.

Rothenburg residents were joined by people from Bavaria to celebrate the anniversary of becoming an imperial city in Germany.

This regional event featured a reenactment of the rebellion, with locals in historical dress, representing knights, soldiers, royalty, peasants, and tradespeople.

The only people not in historical dress were the tourists! We really felt like we were in a time warp, witnessing events from hundreds of years ago.

During one of the numerous processions through town, peasants from a nearby encampment streamed through the town.

The cobblestone streets are narrow, and the onlookers are shoulder-to-shoulder with the participants.

As the rich colors and gentle folds of the cloaks flowed by, my eye caught the tightly held tiny bouquet of simple flowers.

This image caught the simplicity and elegance of this special experience.

Taken with my Panasonic Lumix (Leica lens), point and shoot, on auto setting.

“Mabry Mill” by Ken Roberts

Mabry Mill is a stop in the Blue Ridge Parkway in southern Virginia. As I recall, we were there fairly late one afternoon on a lightly overcast day. I liked how the surrounding woods and millpond framed the mill. The shoreline of the pond became my leading line. I made only a few adjustments to the original image. I cropped to a 5:4 ratio, and darkened some highlights to bring out the detail on the roof. I use a Sony A550 camera. The image was shot at ISO 200, f6.3 and 1/125 sec. I made the print on my Canon Pro-10 printer.
